Farmers' Cooking Stoves.

We have sold over 4,000 of the above

Cooking Stoves in Kentucky in the past 18 months, and about 300 from Frankfort in the last six weeks, and still the demand for them is on the increase.

Stoves made of the best quality of new iron, and is finished in a very superior style.

We give below a few of the many recommendations that we are daily receiving from some of the citizens of the city and county, as to the superior quality of our Stoves, and could add a hundred more deemed necessary. These gentlemen are, however, known to everybody, that we deem it superfluous to add others.

For information apply at Watson's hotel.

Frankfort, Aug. 24, 1867.

I purchased one of Culver Brothers' Elevated Oven Farming Cooking Stoves a short time ago, and can cheerfully recommend it. It can be heated with less wood, and do better baking in a shorter time, than any stove I have ever used before, besides being handsome and convenient.

B. F. MEEK.

We take great pleasure in recommending Culver Brothers' Farmer Cook Stove to all who are in want of a good article. This stove having no damper to obstruct the draft, it necessarily draws well, and no inside plates to burn out makes it more durable and less liable to injury. Each of us having one in use, we cheerfully recommend it to our neighbors and friends.

The Street Car Bender.

The "Grecian Bend" found its way into a street car a few days ago, and an audacious youth of a poetic turn of mind perpetrated the following concerning it:

She stepped upon the platform—

Her grace I can't forget—

For, Oh! that Grecian bend of hers

Clings to my memory yet.

Her smile was like the sunbeam;

Her bonnet some, you bet;

But that lovely Grecian bend of hers

Was the heaviest oend I met.

Her waterfalls were gorgeous,

And all who saw, contend

That her grace was never equalled

By the Saratoga bend.

But, alas, for maiden beauty—

Dust will return to dust,

And the most enchanting bender

Is doomed to moth and rust.

In stooping to assume her seat,

(I hate to tell, but must.)

Some whalebone thing that stayed her up

Bent double—and then bust!

She softly sighed, and sweetly smiled,

And then, in accents tender,

As she rubbed her back, she gently said,

"Thank Heaven, I'm off my bender!"

JOHN W. RUSSELL,

WILLIAM HODGES,

SAMUEL CROCKETT,

LOCAL MATTER.

Elder John I. Rogers was in Cynthiana last Tuesday.

Gov. Stevenson passed through Cynthiana last Tuesday morning on his way to Covington.

Mr. Henry Cunningham and a Mr. Lindsay, both of Bourbon, had a difficulty on Monday last, near Rion & Mitchell's corner in Paris, in which stones were thrown and pistols drawn, and one shot was made from Mr. C's pistol, the ball passing through the arm of Mr. Lindsay.

Mr. David Warth, of Broadwell, was out hunting on horseback, one night last week, and rode up near to a loose nag in a pasture when she wheeled and kicked him, mashing his leg frightfully, below the knee.

Died—In Falmouth, Ky., October 31st, 1885, after an illness of five weeks, Mr. David Grapheck, aged about 69 years and 10 months. He was a resident of this city for 7 or 8 years.

Mr. J. O. Day is about finishing the brick work on his new residence on Main street. It presents a fine appearance.

Mr. Dill has commenced the brick work on the residence and business house of Dr. McNeese, on the corner of Main and Pleasant streets.

Messrs. J. W. Smith and Mr. Gilliam, are about to commence the slaughtering business in or near this city. They are purchasing turkeys.

We learn from Elder Case, the pastor of the Christian Church in this city, that their new church, is nearly finished and will be ready, it is believed, for service by the 1st of January. Their new house for worship, is a respectable edifice.

Our good-looking and pleasant friend, A. E. Eschelman, the artist, is now engaged in drafting large sized paintings of the whisky distilleries of the country. He is just the man for the business, and our distillers would do well to employ him.

Mr. Mine host of the Blue Lick Springs, Capt. J. R. McCormick, has sold his hotel to Jno. R. Hall, who will continue the business. Mr. McCormick has purchased a hotel in Owingsville, Bath county, where he will be pleased to see his old friends, provided they visit that country on hunting expeditions, &c. or on any other business. Owingsville is a thrifty town.

The portable steam saw mill belonging to Mr. A. P. Boyers and James Craig, near Williamstown, was destroyed by fire, we regret to learn, on Friday night last.

A drunken and disorderly negro resisted our efficient Marshal, Mr. Baker, last Monday. The marshal shot at him, but accidentally failed to kill him. The colored ruffian was lodged in jail. We are pleased to see that we have a marshal who is determined to do his duty, and we hope our citizens will sustain him.

Mr. Jason Tribby, of this county, has left upon our table an ear of yellow corn which contains 1,122 kernels. Big corn.

E. D. Rowland says he has a year of corn which has 1,800 kernels on it.

We learn from the Frankfort Yeoman that another outrage has been committed against law and order in our State—that two men who had been confined in jail for horse stealing in Nicholasville, had been taken out and hung on the night of the 28th ult. to a tree near Foster's toll gate, by a mob.

We don't know and care less who the guilty parties are, but we feel that it is the duty of the officers of the law in our State, to find out and arrest men, who seem determined to take the law in their own hands. It is a duty the people owe to themselves that this ruffianism should be stopped. If an end cannot be made to such acts then let the business of tax collector be abolished. Every law-abiding man pays taxes for protection, then give them protection or shut up shop.

T. J. Megibben of this county, has shipped to the warehouse of T. R. Hill, in this city, 1,128 barrels of whisky, to make room in his own warehouse for the crop he is now manufacturing. Mr. J. W. Williams, the storekeeper, informs us that there are 2,278 barrels in the house at this time.

J. W. Henry is the owner of a yoke of oxen which weighs 4,010 pounds. He has worked them for the last 12 years, and defies the world to beat the pair. One of them weighs 2,130 pounds.

Last Friday night, some reckless creatures, whom we should suppose, had neither respect for self or friends, took a bucket of tar which was left outside the door of one of our grocery stores, and besmeared the door-steps and doors of half a dozen of our most respectable citizens. It is humiliating to believe that we have such people in our midst, and much more so, that they can do these dirty acts and never be caught. We hope to hear that the perpetrators of this act will be caught and punished, and banished from our city.

MULE TRADE.—Richard M. Stone of this county, went to North Carolina a short time ago with a good lot of medium mules belonging to Mr. T. Rogers and himself. He disposed of his stock, pocketed the cash, and returned home, making the round trip in 25 days. He started with another lot of 36 a few days ago for the same market.

C. C. Skillman has just returned from Pennsylvania where he disposed of a lot of fair prices.

The home trade has been dull this week. Wm. A. Osborn sold a pair of mules for $550; Wesley Forman, a single mule, at $240, and Val. Hildreth one at $225. Chancellor & Steele sold a horse for $240.—Paris Citizen.

John C. Breckinridge the other day made a speech, in which there was no politics, to an agricultural society on the Canadian side of the Niagara.

Progress.—Columbus sailed to the American coast in a four hundred ton ship, and first landed upon Island of St. Domingo. Last week, a vessel from St. Domingo unloaded in New York over four hundred tons of St. Croix Rum for P. H. Drake & Co., of that city. This is but a few weeks' supply of this article, which these gentlemen use in the manufacture of the celebrated Plantation Bitters. We are informed by an exchange that Messrs. Drake & Co. have not advertised a dollar for a year, but that the sales of this article continue at the former enormous figure. In 1884 the receipts of the Plantation Bitters were equal to those of the New York and New Haven Railroad.

Magnolia Water.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne and sold at half the price.

Our young friend, Mr. G. H. Shawhan, formerly of Shawhan's Station, but at present with the large hat and fur house of Lockwood & Nichols, 86 West Pearl street, Cincinnati, was in Cynthiana last Saturday, looking well and hearty. Persons visiting Cincinnati, would do well to call and see George, as he will give them cheap bargains.

The Alabama claims are now up again for adjustment, and the British government has expressed itself desirous of an arbitration. Among the claims, persistently pressed, are those of the ever-present and active J. C. Ayer & Co., for the value of shipments of Cherry Pectoral, Sarsaparilla, Ague Cure, and Pills, in transit for Oregon, Vancouver's Island and Russian America, destroyed on the Am Schmidt off the coast of South America. Universal is the use of their remedies, that they are afloat on almost every sea; and this firm is frequently caught between the upper and another mill stones of contending nations. But they are known to stand up for their rights, and to get them.—Wash. Republican.

An immense con hunt took place one night last week, below Oddville, in which a large party of young men of this county participated. They caught 7 opossums, 5 coons and 3 foxes. Mr. Mullin, Whitaker boys led the party.

We heard of a most distressing case of murder, caused by jealousy, which happened on Thursday night at Bryansville. A young man by the name of Grimes had been paying his addresses to a young lady who was teaching a school in the neighborhood, and probably there might have been an engagement between them. They were taking a walk on Thursday evening, when it was thought, she dismissed him, and he in a frenzy of jealousy and rage shot her dead on the spot.

Mrs. Prescie Lilly died at the residence of her husband, near Leesburg, on Friday last, Oct. 30, 1885. She was the wife of our friend, Mr. Pleasant Lilly, a gentleman well known as a stock trader in the South, and she was one of the most estimable of ladies, and leaves an interesting family and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss.

We would suggest to the city council the propriety of securing the services of Mr. Benj. Grove while here to draft a plat of the city, including the addition lately added by Mr. Wilson. The addition contains about 14 acres and has been laid off in beautiful lots, which are selling rapidly and will be quite an acquisition to our city.

We clip the following from the Lexington Statesman:

The Phoenix Hotel presented a lively and unusual stir yesterday, caused by the appearance of a wedding party from Scott, with a large number of friends and attendants. Upon enquiry we learned the happy couple were Mr. J. R. Cooper, of Covington, who had just led to the altar, one of Scott's beautiful belles, Miss Herndon. An elegant and sumptuous repast was served at the Phoenix, and the party took the afternoon train for Covington.

H. Magee & Son have removed their grocery store to Pike street, in their new and splendid brick business house. They have a large and fresh stock of groceries, which they propose to sell as cheap as any house in town, and they are deservingly men. The High Priest of Democracy is always at his post. We hope he may always be there.

The morning passenger train from Lexington takes breakfast at this city. The Smith House is an excellent house, and furnish a breakfast equal to the best.

A week or two since we noticed an interesting religious meeting which had been progressing at Providence Church in Jessamine county, for several weeks, and we failed to state by whom it was opened, &c. The members of this church are earnest energetic men and women, and take a lively interest in the eternal welfare of their neighbors. That eminent divine, Elder Jno. A. Gano, was invited to preach to them, and his efforts being so fully seconded by the members, the little fire which was burning in their hearts soon grew up to a large and brilliant blaze. He remained with them a few days, but was called away and his place was filled by General Elder R. A. Gano, his son, and the powerful words spoken by him had the effect of bringing to repentance 62 persons in three weeks, all of whom were baptized and joined the church. There are but few men in our country like Elder R. A. Gano—his earnestness, his goodness of heart, and his entire adaptation to the service in which he is engaged, together with the success which crowns his efforts, stamps at once as an extraordinary man, and a great revivalist. In his work at Providence, he had no assistance, except that given by his father.

SPLENDID PICTURE.—Last week we called upon our friends Rhorer & Bro., on Walnut street, Cynthiana, where we were shown a beautiful water-colored portrait, photographed by Rhorer & Brothers, and painted by Dwight Benton, of Cincinnati. It is a true and life-sized, life-like picture of Miss Maude Kimbrough, and should be seen to be appreciated. The background and landscape scenery surrounding the portrait is grand. A water-colored picture gives a finer, more perspective, and a more atmospheric effect, more agreeable to the eye, and can be seen to better advantage under any condition than other styles of painting. So exact has this picture been brought out, and so plain and visible has the artist touched up the trees and vegetation, that the most unpracticed eye can discern and name the tree by its foliage, or the flowers by its bloom. In the expression of the portrait, no truer resemblance could be given; the color of the hair, the true tinge of the cheek, the bright and animated glance of the eye, with the whole contour of the countenance, is given in most unmistakable colors so strong that you are almost forced to the conclusion that the picture is the individual herself.

Our people will, doubtless, be pleased to know that we have among us, artists qualified to make portraits like the one above described.

Our friend Wash. Craigmyle, has returned to his home after an absence of several weeks. He says his liquors are as fine as ever.

MARRIED.
In Cynthiana, October 29, 1885, by Rev. H. W. Scudder, Mr. J. W. Stephens of Bath county, and Miss H. A. Lockridge, of Cynthiana.

CAMPBELL'S CREEK
SEMI-CANNEL COAL.
For cleanliness, pleasure in use, this Coal is without an equal among Bituminous Coal.

It is free from slate and sulphur, it burns freely, does not run and does not get sooty, it is less smoky, leaves less ash, and burns less than any other brand of coal. It is the best coal for domestic use, and for the use of the South. It is the only coal that is so pure, and so free from impurities, as to be used for the purpose of domestic use, and for the use of the South.

These are facts of which you will be convinced, if you try it.

JOB WORK

Neatly Executed,

At the SHORTEST NOTICE

AND CHEAPER

CHEAPEST.

Eighteen years ago this month, John Atkinson commenced the publication of this paper, in this city. He continued it for two years, when he sold out to Morey & Marsh. Mr. Marsh was one of the firm for two years, and then left it entirely in the hands of the present proprietor. The fortunes of this office and the paper, has been peculiar and varied. It has always stood by the people and their interests, and will continue to do so, against all encroachments from within and without.

Up to 1860, by perseverance and energy, we had furnished an office for the city and county, which cost us over $3,500—an excellent country printing office, and in April 1861 the "News" commenced its opposition to Lincoln's encroachments and unconstitutional acts, and continued in that path until stopped by Lincoln bayonets.

The war commenced and the office was destroyed, and everything which we possessed under the sun was appropriated to the use of the general government. We had only a few friends in this county, after hostilities began, that dare avow sympathy for us, and one among that number was Mr. W. L. Northcutt, Merchant, on the corner of Main and Pike streets. To him we shall always feel grateful.

At the close of our little unpleasantness, we returned to Cincinnati as penniless and poor as a mendicant; but with some assistance from friends, managed to start up again, and we are now pleased to say that our flag is again floating in the breeze.

We ask our readers to assist us to increase the number of our subscribers, as we have enlarged our paper to twenty-eight columns, and otherwise improved its appearance.

The mechanical department is under the skillful management of Mr. E. S. Flanagan, the foreman of the office. Hereafter the "News" will be issued on Thursday morning, which has always been our publication day.

Our Job Office will be fitted up in a few weeks, with the addition of a new Job Press and all the latest styles of Type, Cuts, &c., when we will be able to print, in the most approved style, all kinds of Job Work, such as Bill Heads, Letter Heads, Visiting Cards, Labels, Sale Bills, Posters, &c. Give us a call.
